Code of Conduct & Ethics

1 Definitions

The following terms have these meanings in this Code: “Officials” means anyone, with the exception of players, performing an activity connected with the German Canadian Football Club (“GCFC”), regardless of title, the type of activity (administrative, sporting or any other) and the duration of the activity. It includes, but is not limited to, all Directors, Officers, committee members, Judicial Body members, coaches, trainers, referees, assistant referees, fourth officials, match commissioners, referee inspectors, diversity officers, persons in charge of safety, and any other person responsible for technical, medical and/or administrative matters in Canada Soccer, as well as all other persons obliged to comply with the Canada Soccer By-laws.

“Staff” means any paid or volunteer person in a permanent or temporary position.

“Team Personnel” includes, but is not limited to, coaches, assistant coaches, guest coaches, managers, gender representatives, heads of delegation, medical or other personnel in a position of influence on the athletes.

2 Purpose

- i. The purpose of the GCFC Code of Conduct and Ethics (hereinafter referred to as the Code) is to ensure a safe and positive environment (within GCFC’s programs, activities, and events) by making individuals aware that there is an expectation, at all times, of appropriate behaviour consistent with GCFC’s core values. GCFC supports equal opportunity, prohibits discriminatory practices, and is committed to providing an environment in which all individuals are treated with respect.
- ii. This Code is not intended to specifically outline every instance of misconduct. Misconduct that is not in line with the values of GCFC or with the purpose of this Code may still constitute a breach of the Code and be subject to sanctions even though not specifically included in the Code.

3 Application of this Code

This Code applies to Officials, Athlete Members, Life Members, players and individuals employed or engaged by GCFC.

The Code also applies to the Directors of the Provincial / Territorial Association Members, Professional Club Members or League Members or any other individuals who perform duties on behalf of these Members when the Members are engaged in soccer-related activities sanctioned by Canada Soccer.

Code of Conduct & Ethics

This Code focuses on the conduct of actions on and off the field of play. Any breach of this Code will be addressed as described in the Canada Soccer Disciplinary Code.

4 Responsibilities

All parties referred to in Section 3 have a responsibility to:

- i. Comply, at all times, with the Canada Soccer By-laws, Rules and Regulations, policies, procedures and directives.
- ii. Work in a spirit of partnership to collaborate with GCFC and all its Members and stakeholders to align efforts to achieve the Mission of Canada Soccer.
- iii. Resolve conflicts in a professional and civil manner on issues that may be in dispute. iv. Maintain and enhance the dignity and self-esteem of Canada Soccer Members and other individuals by:
  - a. Demonstrating respect to individuals regardless of body type, physical characteristics, athletic ability, age, ancestry, colour, race, citizenship, ethnic origin, place of origin, creed, disability, family status, marital status, gender identity, gender expression, sex, and sexual orientation;
  - b. Directing comments or criticism appropriately and avoiding public criticism of Members;
  - c. Consistently demonstrating the spirit of fair play, sport leadership, and ethical conduct;
  - d. Consistently treating individuals fairly and reasonably;
  - e. Adhering to the FIFA Laws of the Game;
  - f. Demonstrating respect for the principle of fair play, which include:
    - Respect for both the letter and spirit of the rules;
    - Respect for referees and their decisions;
    - Respect for opponents, including modesty in victory and composure in defeat;
    - Facilitation of access to sport; and
    - Maintenance of self-control at all times.
  - g. Refraining from the use of power or authority in an attempt to coerce another person to engage in inappropriate activities;
  - h. Promoting the sport in the most constructive and positive manner possible;
  - i. Respecting the property of others and not willfully cause damage; and
  - j. Adhering to all federal, provincial, municipal and host country laws.

4.1 Integrity in Sport

GCFC is committed to demonstrating the highest level of integrity, both on and off the playing field.

participants in sport. This is accomplished by establishing and following procedures for confidentiality (right to privacy), informed participation, and fair and reasonable treatment. Team personnel have a special responsibility to respect and promote the rights of participants who are in a vulnerable or dependent position and less able to protect their own rights. This section applies equally to the relationship between match officials and their coaches, instructors, accessors, and mentors.

Team personnel must also:

- i. Ensure a safe environment by selecting activities and establishing controls that are suitable for the age, experience, ability, and fitness level of the involved athletes;
- ii. Prepare athletes systematically and progressively, using appropriate time frames and monitoring physical and psychological adjustments while refraining from using training methods or techniques that may harm athletes;
- iii. Avoid compromising the present and future health of athletes by communicating and cooperating with sport medicine professionals in the diagnosis, treatment, and management of athletes' medical and psychological treatments;
- iv. Provide athletes (and the parents/guardians of a minor) with the information necessary to be involved in decisions that affect the athlete;
- v. Act in the best interest of the athlete's development as a whole person;
- vi. Respect other team personnel;
- vii. Report any ongoing criminal investigations, previous convictions or existing bail conditions;
- viii. Under no circumstances provide, promote, or condone the use of drugs (other than properly prescribed medications) or performance-enhancing substances and, in the case of minors, alcohol and/or tobacco;
- ix. Respect athletes playing with other teams;
- x. Not engage in a sexual relationship with an athlete under 18 years old, or an intimate or sexual relationship with an athlete over the age of 18 if in a position of power, trust, or authority over the athlete;
- xi. Dress professionally, neatly, and inoffensively; and
- xii. Use inoffensive language, taking into account the audience being addressed.

5.3 Athletes

Athletes must also:

- i. Report any medical problems in a timely fashion, when such problems may limit their ability to travel, practice, or compete; or in the case of carded athletes, interfere with the athlete's ability to fulfill requirements under the Athlete Assistance Program;

Code of Conduct & Ethics

- ii. Participate and appear on time, well-nourished, and prepared to participate to their best abilities in all competitions, practices, training sessions, tryouts, tournaments, and events;
- iii. Adhere to Canada Soccer's requirements regarding clothing and equipment;
- iv. Never ridicule a participant for a poor performance or practice; and
- v. Act in a sportsmanlike manner and not engage in violent behaviour, foul language, or offensive gestures.

5.4 Spectators and Parents

Spectators and Parents are expected to:

- i. Encourage athletes to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence;
- ii. Never ridicule a participant for making a mistake during a performance or practice;
- iii. Provide positive comments that motivate and encourage participants' continued effort;
- iv. Respect the decisions and judgments of officials and encourage athletes to do the same;
- v. Respect and show appreciation to all competitors, and to the coaches, officials, and other volunteers who give their time to the sport; and
- vi. Refrain from entering the training or competition area and from interfering with any activities.

6 Duty of Disclosure, Reporting and Cooperation

Any behaviour prohibited by this Code that is experienced or observed must be reported confidentially and in writing to discipline@canadasoccer.com.

When a report is submitted, the following shall apply:

1. A person reporting a violation of this Code shall be provided the opportunity to remain anonymous, save and except in those circumstances where the nature of the disclosure and/or the resultant investigation make it necessary to disclose identity (for example, legal investigations or proceedings). In such cases, all reasonable steps shall be taken to protect the person reporting from harm as a result of having made a disclosure.
2. The identity of the person submitting a report shall remain confidential unless the person and the Ethics Committee Members agree otherwise.
3. A person is protected against retaliation as a result of having made, in good faith, a report which the person believes to be valid or as a result of such person having otherwise assisted in the investigation of the report. Retaliation against a person who raises a concern, in good faith, will not be tolerated and is considered a violation of this Code.
